Signature Blocks on the DI-451 for Department and Reclamation Honor Awards

The easy way to remember: Two top signature boxes are for Regional and Denver signatures; Recommending and Reviewing the Honor Award.

Middle box is for the Director of Policy and Administration; Reviewing Official.

Two bottom signatures boxes are for Washington DC signatures; Reviewing and Approving the Honor Award.

Honor Awards are always Approved in Washington DC. No one outside of Washington DC can approve an Honor Award.

Highest and Mid-Level Honor Awards:

Distinguished Service Award

Partners in Conservation Award

Valor Award

Outstanding Service Award

Meritorious Service Award

Unit Award for Excellence of Service

Other Awards, inside the Department:

Diversity Champions Award

Safety Awards

Environmental Achievement Award

Historic Preservation

Other Awards – Are outside the Department of the Interior. All nominations have to go through the Commissioner and Assistant Secretary for Water and Science (ASWS) before being forwarded to the outside organization. Examples:

Federal Engineer of the Year Award

Service to America Medals (SAMMIES)

Guardian Award

American Recreation Coalition Legends and

Beacon Award

National Property Management Association, etc.

The Commissioner will always sign as a Reviewing Official and the ASWS will sign as Approving Official on the DI-451. Depending on the Honor Award, the ASWS will sign the Citation and Certificate or the Secretary of the Department of the Interior will sign the Citation and Certificate. The example below applies to the Highest, Mid-Level Honor Awards and all Outside Awards.
